MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Fullam, Sr. J.

February 25, 2008

Plaintiff's hand-written complaint in this action is largely illegible. Plaintiff seems to be complaining about the way prison authorities handled various grievances that he may have asserted. To the extent that any meaning can be gleaned from plaintiff's complaint, it appears that his claims, if any, arose at the respective prisons, neither of which is located in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. None of the named defendants is a resident of this District. Accordingly, the action will be dismissed, without prejudice to plaintiff's right to file a comprehensible claim in the appropriate court.

An Order follows.
